

Terms & Conditions: Video Production

The purchaser agrees to the terms and conditions set out in their provided invoice. The purchaser agrees to pay the services rendered within the invoice. Full payment must be paid to Budget Music Videos immediately for the video to be planned and booked. This payment term can vary depending on agreement with client and will be explained prior to the agreement. Terms of payment will be stated within the invoice.

REFUND TERMS: Once the invoice is paid in full or even part paid in deposits, we do not issue refunds under any circumstances. We will aim to fulfill the contract as per the terms, but we do not issue refunds if the client changes their mind at any stage of the process. It is up to the purchaser to arrive at the shoot on time and prepared, Budget Music Videos will not be held accountable for loss of shooting time or expenses incurred. Budget Music Videos promise to film and provide the music video as close to the original description in the video plan attached to the invoice, however this can depend on the performers, day of filming, unanticipated set-backs and co-operation of all involved. Depending on your budget the number of reviews/amendments of the final video will depend on the package you choose. For all additional amendments there is a charge of £50 for each set of amendments and each time the video has to be rendered. Budget Music Videos will do their best to send you a preview of the video within 3-4 weeks after filming, and will endeavour to have the video finished within 1 month from filming, depending on reviews/amendments requested from client and quality of video/footage, however this is not a guarantee.

Hair & Makeup terms: If we provide the hair and makeup artist, we will endeavour that they will do the job to your preference, but cannot guarantee they will meet your expectations. It is up to the client to ensure they are happy with the service and make it clear on the day of filming if they are not. We will not be held accountable for hair and makeup and the final results. The client must come prepared if they have high expectations for this.

We will not be held responsible when a model, dancer, actor or extra does not attend day of filming although they have been booked by us in advance. We will endeavour to find a replacement if possible and if we do not succeed we will refund the fee paid for the said person, less administration fee. We will also not be held responsible if a dancer, model, actor or extra does not perform to the highest standard that is expected of them for the said project. This is always a risk when booking people for projects.

We will do our best to meet the requirements of the video; however will not be held accountable if the client/purchaser is not satisfied with the final outcome. The purchaser is entitled to all footage taken of the shoot if requested, there is a £250 charge to release all the footage to the client, however Budget music Videos and the Director/ videographer involved must be accredited in the final video and if the footage is used elsewhere, as Budget music videos and the director involved hold all creative copyright on the original footage. If the client would like to own all rights to the footage and buyout the director and Budget Music Videos, there must be a payment of £500 paid, and Budget Music Videos will release all footage to the client with a contract of full release of ownership.

The purchaser agrees to allow Budget Music Videos to use the video footage, photographs and behind the scenes footage/photographs and final video for their own promotional activities including promotion on their show reel, websites, social media and video profiles including YouTube and Vimeo. Budget Music Videos and the Director in charge of the shoot still have creative copyright on the original video and footage. If the video is tampered with and reclaimed by another person as their own, including any video footage/photos, this is copyright infringement and legal action will be taken.

For Music Videos, whichever Director worked on the video will be entitled to brand the video at the beginning with their name, under no circumstances should this be removed. This is for any music videos that will be used online. If for example, a special requirement is that the name must be removed at the beginning for TV purposes, we are happy to supply a copy of the video for TV, at any format requested, without any branding for a small fee of £100. But all credits must be given to the Director at all times. If the client requests that the Directors name is completely removed from the final music video, for use online, TV and anywhere else there will be a cost of £500, however this does not mean that budget music videos or the director has removed creative copyright, these terms of creative copyright ownership still belong to the Director and budget music videos. If the music video is found online without the Directors name present on the video, and this has not been agreed with Budget Music Videos or paid for, then Budget Music videos can take legal action.

For any other type of videos including promo videos, interview videos, event videos etc we do not require that the Directors name is present at the beginning of the video. We only require that the company logo "BMV PRODUCTIONS" and contact information is stated at the end of the video, and given credit on any online or other viewing forums. This logo must not be removed from the video if being used online. However if the video is being used for TV, the logo can be removed by client, or we can remove and send another version without the logo for a small fee of £50. All credits to 'BMV PRODUCTIONS' must be given at all times. No other payment will be requested by 'Budget Music Videos' and their directors after the initial costs of making the music video, as long as all terms mentioned above are followed.

The client will receive 1 copies of the final video: X1 1080 HD (including music/audio) MP4 H264 Online Format

The client has the rights to distribute or sell their final video, terms are as follows:

The time and duration of these rights is indefinite meaning that it is forever.

The client has the rights to distribute, sell or upload the video anywhere in the world.

The client has the rights to distribute, sell and upload the music videos to;

-Anyone

-Any range of media.

-Any form of media.

-Any Platform.

-Online

-Television channels and television shows

-Broadcasting services such as the fastrax.

-Distribution services.

The client can also;

-Collect royalties from the music videos without paying Budget Music Videos or the director any form of payment, fee or percentage of the revenue gained.

-Keep all revenue and profits gained from the distribution, selling and uploading of the videos without paying any form of payment, fee or percentage of the revenue gained to Budget Music Videos or the director

Budget Music Videos and the director of the video (whoever that maybe) both agree with these terms and conditions as the director works for Budget Music Videos. No other professional cameras/photographers are permitted on the day of filming, only our cameras and footage may be used, this includes photographs. We have the right to reserve our creative copyright during filming, as we are the creators. If client requests to take pictures/video with personal camera phones and camera, this is permitted. If client requests all our professional photographs taken on the day, there is a fee of £50. If client wishes to have a 'behind the scenes video' made there is a fee of £150. There are no amendments or changes allowed for the final 'behind the scenes' video; the video is final, unless an additional payment is paid for more amendments.
